Miss Livingston Roundup's contest Rules

1. From the time the competition starts contestants must abide by the Contest Rules.
2. Judges have the final say on all scoring decisions.
3. Contestants must be prompt and on-time to all functions. Please plan ahead. Tardiness will not be tolerated. If you are not 15 minutes early, you are late.
4. Speeches are to be 1.5 minutes long (90sec). No notes or props are permitted. This will be in accordance with MRM speech guidelines. Each contestant will be given a series of speech topics to choose from. They will then have 10 minutes to prepare a 1.5 minute speech.
5. Horsemanship competition will consist of two go-grounds, on two different horses, one pattern chosen by the judges from the three included in the contest rules and one rail class. Drawing for horses will take place at the horsemanship competition.
6. There will be a written test administered during competition. Each contestant is expected to be knowledgeable in all areas associated with a rodeo queen's duties throughout her reign. Including but not limited to: PRCA rules and regulations, AQHA guidelines, basic animal health,

MRA and MRM related information, and WPRA knowledge.

7. This contest follows the guidelines of the Miss Rodeo Montana rules, with guidance from the Rodeo Montana Board. Miss Livingston Roundup will attempt to attend as many PRCA rodeos in our state and appear at parades or Kiddie Rodeos as different committees are sponsoring as possible.

8. The incoming Miss Livingston Roundup will represent the LRA in a professional manner. There will be no use of ANY alcohol or tobacco product by any contestant during the contest or while representing the LRA.

9. During the contest there will be silent judges present. Conduct yourself in an appropriate manner at all times.

10. The MLR dress code will be strictly adhered to for each function. Additional event dress regulations and guidelines will be given to each contestant.

11. Parents and relatives are encouraged to attend! LRA welcomes all and wants to make this an enjoyable time for everyone involved. However, parents, relatives, friends, coaches, etc. may not interfere with the judges in any way. Interference may cause the contestant's disqualification.

12. On judging day, parents, friends, will not be allowed in the back gate area. They must find seating, preferable in the Grandstand. You are expected to say your "goodbyes" before you enter the rodeo ground back gate area and prepare your own horse for competition. LRA will supply assistance in changing saddles for you during the competition between patterns.

13. Contestants will conduct themselves in an appropriate manner. If inappropriate behavior occurs, in the opinion of the judges, you may be disqualified from the competition.

In the event the contestant chosen as Miss Livingston Roundup is not able to fulfill her duties as deemed by the LRA she must return any awards and make compensation for monetary awards received, and all future appearance dates will be canceled. The LRA Board of Directors reserve the right to determine if a successor will be named, and if so, who that will be.
